

Subject: Design and Technology  The collage includes three puppets (a frog, a bear, and a mole) on the left, a marionette on the right, and a close-up of a needle and thread with a yellow thread on blue fabric. A circular logo for 'RED TED ART' is visible in the bottom left of the sewing image.	Year Group: 2 Term: Summer 1 Key Knowledge <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Know the history of puppets and how they have been used in the past. - Know the different types of puppets. - Know how different types of puppets are made. - Know the safety rules when sewing.  The diagram shows various puppet types: Marionette, Shadow, Finger, Hand, Sack, and Rod. A vertical URL 'www.puppetmakingworld.com' is on the right.	Title: Wind in the Willows Key Questions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Who might use this? ▪ What purpose does it serve? ▪ Does it look like a character from a rhyme or story? ▪ How could you make it move? ▪ What stitches have been used? ▪ What sort of material has been used? ▪ How has the puppet been decorated/features added?
Key Skills <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Make and use templates. - Use and attach materials in different ways. - Use a running stitch. - Decorate fabrics with attached items. - To colour fabrics using a range of techniques. - To evaluate a product against the design criteria. 	A Good Designer...  The icons represent the design process: Seek solutions (lightbulb), Research & develop (magnifying glass), Test & refine (checklist), Plan (pencil and paper), Create (hammer), and Evaluate (thumbs up).	Key Vocabulary and definitions <table border="1" data-bbox="1391 946 2181 1177"> <tr> <td>Running stitch</td> <td>A small even stitch run in and out of fabric.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Textiles</td> <td>A type of cloth or fabric.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Sewing</td> <td>Making or mending things using a needle and thread.</td> </tr> </table>  A photograph showing a variety of colorful spools of thread in shades of red, purple, blue, yellow, and black.	Running stitch	A small even stitch run in and out of fabric.	Textiles	A type of cloth or fabric.	Sewing	Making or mending things using a needle and thread.
Running stitch	A small even stitch run in and out of fabric.
Textiles	A type of cloth or fabric.
Sewing	Making or mending things using a needle and thread.							