

Subject: Geography	Year Group: 2	Term: Pentecost 1	Title: Wind in the Willows
 	Key Knowledge - Name the 7 continents and 5 oceans. - Know the seasons and weather patterns in the United Kingdom. - Know what land and sea is on maps. - Notice and describe weather patterns. 	Key Questions ▪ What is the weather like today / this week / this time of year? ▪ What are the names of the four seasons, in sequence, in the UK? ▪ How does the weather change as we move through the seasons in the UK? ▪ Is the weather the same across all parts of the UK on the same day? ▪ How does the weather affect human activity? ▪ What is a weather forecast and how can it be helpful to us? ▪ How can we record the weather in our school grounds?
Key Skills - Identify seasonal and daily weather patterns of the United Kingdom. - Use Geographical vocabulary. - Use simple fieldwork techniques. - Identify the location of hot and cold areas of the world in relation to the Equator and North and South poles. 	A Good Geographer... Good geographers... conduct fieldwork  use and read maps  identify human features  compare  identify physical features  ask questions about the world around them  use directional language to orientate themselves 	Key Vocabulary and definitions <table><tr><td>Capital City</td><td>A city where a government is located.</td></tr><tr><td>Physical features</td><td>Natural features on the Earth that would be here even if humans weren't.</td></tr><tr><td>Season</td><td>In a year, the UK has a cycle of 4 weather changes which is divided into seasons. They are: winter, spring, summer and autumn.</td></tr><tr><td>Equator</td><td>An imaginary line drawn around the middle of the earth to divide it into the northern and southern hemispheres.</td></tr></table>	Capital City	A city where a government is located.	Physical features	Natural features on the Earth that would be here even if humans weren't.	Season	In a year, the UK has a cycle of 4 weather changes which is divided into seasons. They are: winter, spring, summer and autumn.	Equator	An imaginary line drawn around the middle of the earth to divide it into the northern and southern hemispheres.
Capital City	A city where a government is located.
Physical features	Natural features on the Earth that would be here even if humans weren't.
Season	In a year, the UK has a cycle of 4 weather changes which is divided into seasons. They are: winter, spring, summer and autumn.
Equator	An imaginary line drawn around the middle of the earth to divide it into the northern and southern hemispheres.

Academic Year 2026-2027

Wind in the Willows